POLICY FOR LITERARY ASSOCIATION OF SRI MANAKULA VINAYAGAR ENGINEERING COLLEGE, PUDUCHERRY

INTRODUCTION

The Literary Association of our Institution functions with an objective of developing the literary competences among the students to exhibit their calibers independently. It has been instrumental in building a community of creative, imaginative and thoughtful thinkers, orators, readers and writers. It acts as a platform wherein the thriving students enhance the literary skills for creative expression and boosts their assertiveness to crack lucrative job offer. It promotes the employability skills of learners and broadens their skills to international standards. In the due course of active participation, Students' leadership and decision making skills get multiplied that develops the overall personality. With the imbibed skills, students are able to accustom to any novice environment with self-sustenance which in turn reflects in agile team building. As a maiden step, a committee is constituted with the enrolment of student members from varied disciplines. A faculty in charge from all departments becomes the member of Literary Association from whom the activities of the club is disseminated to all the students. It also cultivates the passion to share their insights on literary activities and sensitizes students to react constructively.
